News from the Friends

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Vintage Jewelry Sale held recently. It was a very successful fundraiser! Thanks for the hard work of the Jewelry Sale committee, teen volunteers who created flyers and posters and the Friends who donated merchandise.

Congratulations to two graduating seniors who work as Pages at the Library, who were selected for an award of $500 to be used toward their college experience. The scholarship committee reviewed applications and recommendations from the Page supervisors.

The Friends sponsored a Bike Safety Program on Saturday, May 21st for children age 4-11. This program was free of charge made possible by the Friends and AAA. We hope to offer this Bike Safety Program again.

Thank you to all who contributed to the Friends Annual Bake Sale at the Sayville Ferries.

We wish patrons of the Library a very relaxing summer and hope you will enjoy the programs, reading clubs with prizes provided by the Friends and other resources of our Sayville Library.

Lorraine Martin,

President of the Friends of the Sayville Library
