News from the Friends

You may have noticed some LITTLE FREE LIBRARIES around town! These are filled with books that residents may choose from or even donate to. Friends of the Library Board Member Fred Seitz passed away recently and from donations in his memory and the Board Members of the Friends, a Little Free Library will be established at the Edwin Boogertman Memorial Park located on Division Avenue in West Sayville. The park is maintained by Islip Town and is used by families with preschool and early childhood youngsters. Now children and parents will be able to browse and select books while enjoying the park. Happy Reading!
